About Scott

J. Scott Savage is the author of more than 20 published novels. He has been a teacher and presenter at writing conferences for adults and youth, and has developed Common Core-aligned projects for elementary school writing curricula. Scott currently serves on the board of Teen Author Boot Camp, one of the largest teen writing conferences in the country. He has presented at more than 3000 schools across the country, inspiring students to read, write, embrace their own creativity, and change the world. He is represented by Michael Bourret of Dystel, Goderich, and Bourret.

Scott is the author of Graysen Foxx and the Treasure of Principal Redbeard, as well as several other popular series, including The Lost Wonderland Diaries and Secrets of the Looking Glass, published by Shadow Mountain. The Lost Wonderland Diaries is a 2020 Foreword Indie Book of the Year Bronze Medalist in Juvenile Fiction. Scott is also the author of the Case File 13 middle-grade series published by Harper-Collins, and the Mysteries of Cove and FarWorld middle-grade fantasy series, both published by Shadow Mountain. Case File 13: *Zombie Kid received a starred Kirkus review, was a Junior Library Guild Select Book, and was nominated for the Louisiana Young Readers Choice Award. It has also been named by The School Library Journal and Horror Writers of America as one of three middle grade Summer Scares titles for 2020. The first book in the Mysteries of Cove series, Fires of Invention, is a nominee for the 2017-18 Young Hoosiers Award, and the second book in the series, Gears of Revolution, was nominated for a Cybils Award. The third book, Embers of Destruction, received an Honorable Mention in the 2018 Foreword Magazine Book Awards.

Scott lives in Utah with his wife of 35 years, Jennifer. He has four amazing children, and nine perfect grandchildren. He enjoys reading, watching movies, camping, traveling, and spending time with his family.
